

REGULATION

French Government Scholarship / Bourse du Gouvernement Français (BGF)

French Government Scholarships are allocated by the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs for studies, internships or language stays in France. They are awarded by the French Institute in Austria (« Service de coopération et d'action culturelle » of the French Embassy in Austria).

BENEFITS

The French Government scholarship holder benefits from the following advantages during the whole duration of his/her scholarship:

- A monthly allowance:
 - Young researcher: 1300 to 1700 euros / month
 - Artist: 800 to 1700 euros / month
- An insurance issued by Campus France if the scholarship holder is a non-European citizen. The European scholarship holder benefits from the EHIC (European Health Insurance Card).
- Campus France offers accommodation to the scholarship holder, if he or she requests it.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The management of the French Government Scholarships is subcontracted to Campus France Paris.
- As a laureate of a French Government Scholarship, the scholarship holder will not be allowed to leave the country of residence before being in possession of the CampusPass' (information on the services provided by Campus France: amount of the scholarship, accommodation, insurance). In all cases, the scholarship holder must be in possession of an identity document.
- The benefits granted, particularly in terms of financial and administrative support, will not extend to family members who may join the scholarship holder.
- As soon as the scholarship holder arrives in France, he must follow the instructions of the CampusPass' and contact the Campus France centre in his/her region.

- It is not possible to combine the French Government Scholarship with an apprenticeship or work contract, a scholarship from the Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs, an Erasmus + scholarship or a scholarship from the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie. In case of cumulation, the French Government Scholarship will be automatically cancelled.
- Social security covers the scholarship holder, exclusively for the duration of the scholarship, for the risks of illness, accident and civil liability, repatriation to the home country excluding in particular any ailments contracted prior to the arrival of the scholarship holder in France.
- The scholarship holder is required to respect the duration of the training, as well as the rules of attendance of the host institution. They may not interrupt their current training, unless Campus France has expressly granted an exemption.
- Doctoral students or young researchers who receive a scholarship undertake to register in the network "France Alumni Austria", a network of former students of French higher education institutions. The contact details of the scholarship holders of each class are communicated to the France Alumni Austria manager at the French Embassy. Registration must take place before the stay in France on the website <https://www.francealumni.fr/fr/poste/autriche/>.

DURATION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

The extension is not automatic and must be re-applied for at the French Institute in Austria (French Embassy in Austria), which, if accepted, will ask the fellow to prepare a new application file. Any modification of the stay in relation to the information announced in this file must be the subject of a request to the embassy, which reserves the right to refuse funding.

- For young researchers: from 1 to 3 months depending on the made request.
- Artists: from 1 to 6 months depending on the request made in the application of the scholarship holder

CONDITION OF ADMISSION

For a doctoral student and a young researcher:

- To be registered in an Austrian university or research structure as a doctoral student or to have defended his/her thesis less than 5 years.

For an Artist:

- This program is aimed at Austrian artists or artists living in Austria, who wish to develop a research and creation project in France, for a period of one to six months.

END OF STAY REPORT

- The end of the research or artistic stay must be the subject of a final report to be sent to vienne@campusfrance.org.
- Scientific publications made by the scholarship holder (posters, oral presentations, articles, reviews, books...) must mention the financial support of the French Embassy.
